Chapter 54: A shadow that just can't approach

..Evil world

"Are you saying Guriorion's presence disappeared?"

"Umu, after her visit to that world it just poof gone"

"Oh well, even so, she was one of the weakest in the direct subordinates of the evil god."

"I can assume that you already prepared a replacement right?"

"Aa, that muscle freak should be preparing for the departure"

"That guy? You know he might actually destroy that world rather than conquering it? did he actually reached the world already?"

"Nah, they were saying something like how the gate wasn't connecting"

"Its most likely the common spacetime disruption. The true problem is the fact that Guriorion might've been defeated "

"I don't think there would be any person that powerful in that minor world"

"Even if there was, we can just search for the "the one who annihilates evil" and kill him or her"

"Exactly"

...At certain place in certain forest..

"Blonde haired hero-sama? did something happen, because you just sneezed big one twice"

"No idea, maybe someone is talking about me"

"is that is..., aa, more importantly, that weird pattern resurfaced again desuu"

"Didn't I tell you to erase it. you must've forgotten it"

"Eee? I thought I erased it properly"

"Just go erase it again. Also, go draw the water from the well"

"Haiiiii, I understand"

...Houtarou Town Sundry good store UUGO

"I will transfer the goods that were supplied today to the storage"

Furio who came back to CryRoad was helping Ex demon army episonage division silent ears, who were in charge of supplying in Sundry goods store.

In his former world, he worked as a supplier in the firm and so for a while he was giving a helping hand to the sundry goods store. Furio who always liked things like calculating selling price and buying price enjoyed doing this small labor.

"Thanks to you, we were able to decrease our supplying price by more than 30 percent nya"

Flipping through the bills Uliminus showed a very satisfied look while she fixed the glasses' position out of habit. She couldn't stop herself from smiling in happiness as she thinks about all the benefits given from Furio's help.

And right next to her, Gozaru who worked as a clerk in the shop looked at Uliminus.

"...What nya? Are you playing around nya?"

"No, I just thought that you looked beautiful while wearing the glasses"

From such a straight forward answer Uliminus's face turned bright red and "Ba, Baka what the heck are you saying nya! go do the work nya! You won't have lunch if you continue not doing the work nya!"

With a full strength upper cut to Gozaru's chin, Uliminus shouted even though it gave zero damage to Gozaru as he stood smiling, "Umm, I shall return to work"

Went back inside the shop.

Looking at his back Uliminus sighed of relief with her shoulder.

...maybe, tonight I should wear the glasses and go to the floor nya...

She thought so whilst blushing.

Even after becoming the first wife, she was still the same old annoying tsundere.

..Back garden in Furio's house..

Furio household's vegetables are all made in the garden.

Swordsman Blossam who was born in a farmer's household, using farming tools made of dragon scale smithed by Furio managed the farm.

"Blossam you are really amazing. to be able to create such an outstanding farm in this short amount of time"

Lys said so as she looked around while harvesting the crops.

At first, the back garden was just a hobby and was rather small in scale, now it expanded to the point you can't see the end with various kinds of vegetables planted.

"This much is really nothing. My grandma back in countryside manages from here to around that mountain all by herself."

"Haâ€œ", I really can't imagine that"

Lys who followed Blossam's finger, raised a surprised voice.

Lys is a sister of one of heavenly four generals Fangirl , and so from young, as she lived in a constant battle. With that, her knowledge other than battle wasn't grown, and so there are many legends she made from the time she started living with Furio.

- every meal is meat and all of them are roasted
- Every clothes she washed became unusable.
- She gets spontaneous sexual arrousement no matter where.

Even so, she cares about Furio everyday and does everything for her even literally tacking the problem. Sometimes she might go berserk and in other time she might run in opposite direction, and Furio knows all this and still cares for her.

Also, as a person from a wolf race, she has a strong instinct to stay in the herd, so her love and comradeship with the people living together is strong, that's why she takes care of everyone as if she is taking care of her own family.

"Madam-Sama, don't over do it and come back quickly ok. this kind of field work befits me."

"It's fine Blossam. I want everyone to eat delicious food so let me help out more"

The two talked like that as they continued on working.

Former Demon lord army, Slape the death horse was looking at the two from the ranch right next to the farm.

"That violent good for nothing wolf, became that quiet and mother like....it is good to live long"

Smiled as he said so...but

"Slape...I can hear it you know"

"I guess it hasn't changed much," Slape thought so as he was hit by a Tumeto fruit which was thrown by Lys.

Blossam smiled bitterly at such scene and moved her sight to the unfamiliar human that was approaching the place.

That person wore a knight-like armor which seemed to weight hundreds of pounds and equipped large shiny swords seemingly new.

His whole body radiated that he was a newbie as if it was his first time wearing the armor and the sword.

"...what the heck is that"

Blossam tilted her head as she looked at the man.

However the man was looking around the farm, and so Blossam stopped her work and "hello, I've never seen you around here, do you have business with us?"

saying so she talked while smiling.

While she may seem unarmed and without care, however, she is carrying a hoe made out of dragon scale and if necessary it can become more powerful than a normal katana.

Seeing Blossam, the man

"Um, umm...I've heard that there is a warrior with a dragon slayer title, umm do you perhaps know anyone?"

The man answered wimply and weakly.

"DragonSlayer? hmm, Master-sama have one but is Master-sama a warrior? wait did we even have a warrior in our household..."

Blossam thought so as she crossed her arm.

Seeing such scene,

...wait...aren't you forgetting about yourself

Lys commented in her heart.

Brossam. even though she have been farming as of lately, she is actually a warrior with dragonslayer title.

...Evil world....

"Oi, what's wrong with you guys!! The gate isn't opening yet?"

"I, I'm very sorry. We have been trying numerous time to open the gate but... it seems like it is erased every time"

"oi oi oi, what the heck's wrong! Are you really choosing the place with no people right!"

"Yes of course and...."

"Just freaking connect the Gate. without this, we won't be able to invade that damn world!"

...at a certain place in a certain forest....

Blonde haired hero-sama that weird pattern resurfaced again...

Aren't I telling you to erase it goddammit.

Fueee, I'm soorrrryyy.

Chapter 55: It's tough being a Family head

– In Furio's Home – at Night –

Lys approached Furio who just came back from helping the supply department of Sundry good store Uugo, and she grabbed onto his belongings and, "Husband same, before dinner I would like to have a little discussion about something and..."

Saying so She smiled.

Furio felt a little taken back looking at her smile.

right, the smile crept up to her mouth as soon as she looked the other side while walking toward the opposite direction.

even so,

"Alright, what is it?"

Its Furio's style to first listen to the story.

...Few moments later....

From what he heard from Lys:

- A young man came seeking Brossam
- The young man is in love with Brossam
- She needs my help in order to help them stick together.

were the detail from her consultation.

...Even though I'm also quite bad at romantic stuff but...for now, I can't do anything without knowing Brossam's feeling, While thinking stuff like that Furio went to the Living room, and soon "Ma, Master-sama...Can I have a moment please..."

Brossam who was in a state of haggard, came beckoning me to come. It is without a doubt that her current haggard ish appearance is somewhat connected to what Lys discussed with me about, as she usually is energetic and straight forward.

"Alright, what is it?"

From what he heard from Brossam

– A young man came seeking out, the dragon slayer, meaning herself.

– That young man wants to marry that woman

– What should I do to decline without hurting the young man?

were the details got from her consultation

.....Lys wants to get them together, but at the same time, Brossam wants to decline...In a situation like this, what am I supposed to do....Thing like this I should put more weight in the main person Brossam, and her feeling...but I also should take note on the young one's.....

In front of Furio who was walking in the corridor, while thinking so "Master-Same....a, um, can I have a bit of your moment for a consultation?"

Varissa who was working together with him in the shop peeked from her room and beckoned Furio to come.

Furio felt like running away from seeing such a scene.

Varissa who usually radiates of kindness and calmness, acts in such shy manner is when it is probably about romance.

Furio himself isn't that good at things revolving love and made him feel quite unwilling, but even so, "Alright, what is it?"

It is his style to at least listen to what he/she has to say.

...Few moments later

From what he heard from Varissa

– It came to be that she will introduce Gozaru to his dad – How should she bring the fact that she married without permission – And more so as she became the second wife were the details he got from her talk.

...Regarding this, she has to be straight and truthful and try to get them to understand especially so with her personality....It would be fine if I were to back her by being there at the key moment....oh, but, Gozaru-san really sucks at reading the atmosphere and all....

In front of Furio who was thinking so in the corner of the corridor....

"Furio-dono, can I have a moment with you nya?"

Unlike her usual self she peeked her small head from the wall and beckoned Furio to come.

Furio felt nothing but a bad feeling from seeing such seen.

Uliminus who is usually calm and corrected person except for anything regarding Gozaru, came just to ask an advice from me. It must be something quite big to force her to come.

I first doubted if I could give an answer to such a big problem but even so, "Alright, what is it?"

It is his style to at least listen to what he/she has to say.

...Few moments later

From what he heard from Uliminus

– She was told that Varissa wanted to introduce her to Varissa's father as a first wife of Gozaru – She is doubting whether or not she should actually introduce herself – What would be the best course of action for Varissa were the details he got from her talk.

...This too is hard to respond to....but I think Uliminus shouldn't overthink since Varissa's feeling is already decided and I also planned to be together to help out and....

Behind Furio who was thinking so, while washing his face in the sink.

"U, U, U Ummm, Master-sama....can I have a moment plz?"

Bill with a bright red face held onto Furio's sleeves.

Furio, seeing such a scene felt himself bitterly smile.

She who asked in such manner these days were all about Slape. Even thought the detail will probably be the same but, "Alright, what is it?"

It is his style to at least listen to what he/she has to say.

....a few minutes later

What he heard from Bily was exactly as he predicted...

- Does Slape like younger girls?
- Will Slape like girls with no breast
- Will Slape like clumsy girls?

consultation, more like a Q&A.

..If you are that much curious why don't you just ask the person yourself...she said her heart is not ready...and I told her I will tell Slape myself then, but you outright deny it....I'm sure you want your voice to be heard but....

In front of Furio who was thinking so while walking down the stair, ".....(Beckoning)"

It seems like Belano came back from her job as a teacher in magician school...

..Furio household. living room...

"Husbands-ama? You were quite late to the table, and it seems like you are tired...."

Lys asked Furio who finally came to the prepared table filled with dishes.

Furio returned her question with a bitter smile and sat on his usual seat, right next to Lys.

He moved his gaze to the table.

Brossam still looked haggard ish.

Varissa seemingly comforting herself

Uliminus who seemed kinda refreshed.

Bily who looked happy with a cherry red cheeks Belano seemed refreshed after having Furio listening to her about problems regarding her job All five with their different expression looked at Furio.

"I'm sorry for letting you guys wait. Come let's eat"

Furio greeted and started eating.

"....Gozaru-san, you don't have anything to ask right?"

"Nn? what are you talking about"

"Nothing, if there is nothing then all good"

Furio brought the soup to his mouth as he bitterly smiled.

Beside Furio's leg, Sabea made sound Funsu Funsu, as if it felt something from Furio and was trying to comfort him.

...Later that Dinner

Furio was walking toward the bedroom feeling exhausted.

"Supreme one, I would like a little bit of your time can I?"

Even Furio couldn't help but show a sour look at the worst timing of Hiya's appearance.

Even so,

"Alright, what it is?"

It is Furio's style to always listen no matter what.....

...Evil world...

"There is something seriously wrong man....that gate can't connect for shit"

"What do you mean? Did you use the two different location at the same time?"

"Aa, of course, one of them is the same location at the same but other one is the new location. The place where the evil god-sama located shrine is those two. and we did both of them at the same time and they both disappeared at the same time"

"...wh...what in the world is happening?"

...At certain place in a certain forest – part 1

"Damn, that Allure I told her so many times to not forget anything but to forget a handkerchief....geez, because of such item I am forced to come back myself, not good man!"

...even so I shouldn't let a girl walk alone in the forest and ...no no no, I'm being too kind. When I'm back I should scold her.

...? What, that weird pattern in the garden....that Allure, she must've forgotten to erase it, she really is a troublesome girl, when I'm back I should give her suitable punishment ...But, this handkerchief, she still held dear....it is already quite worn out...I should buy a new one for her...."

...At certain place in certain forest part 2

"Fuel, to think I would forget the handkerchief....and that is an important handkerchief for me because it is a handkerchief blonde haired hero same wrapped around my wound, even though he probably have already forgotten.

Even though its a bit worn out, it's very important to me....

Awawaa!? a weird pattern in the garden!? If this was seen by Blonde haired hero sama, he will scold me! I should erase it quickly!"

Chapter 56: Brossam who worked hard on something she wasn't familiar with

Furio's House

Today in the morning, that young knight who had a wishful thought of marrying a female warrior who had the Dragon Slayer title.

Brossam who had his contact called him.

"Won't a cuter outfit be better for such occasion as this?"

Lys who was next to Brossam who was prepared to meet with the boy but "Let us be a spectator and not interfere in this since Brossam herself has said that she will talk it out herself"

She was convinced by Furio to leave the stage, however, comma she was still ready to jump in any moment if Brossam ever required. And so Furio was unable to stay still or rest for the whole time.

"U, Um, umm were you able to find the dragon slayer person!"

The young man approached Brossam with a bright smile on his face.

It seemed like he was really happy from getting a contact as he was breathing raggedly with his shoulders and it was obvious that he came here in a dash from the inn.....It was rather confusing as to whether or not he was running when seen near the house.....

Toward such young knight Brossam bitterly smiled and, "Oh well, for now, you should help me out"

Saying so she gave one of the hoe to him.

"what?"

Brossam dragged the young man who showed a confused look as he couldn't understand what was going on, "You, should go and create the ridge from here till there"

"Ha? A? Umm...I have no idea what you are saying....."

"Shut up and get working!"

"Ye, Yes!"

Without allowing any argument she forced him to help her in the agricultural work.

This work continued on till sun disappearing through the horizon and he only got 1 break for lunch.

"Isn't this a bit overdoing, no matter what?"

Letting the young man who seemed to have sucked out his entire living force loose in the living room, Varissa asked Brossam.

Toward Varissa's question, Varissa replied with a bitter smile and walked toward the young knight.

"You alive, man?"

Toward Brossam's words young man with barely open eyes nodded as if squeezing last bit of his remaining energy.

And because of extreme exhaustion, he soon closed his eyes and breathed raggedly.

confirming his appearance, Brossam started talking to the young knight.

"Have you ever been to school"

".....n, no....I've had.....Home tutor.....come teach me....."

"Have you ever shopped in marketplace"

"....ev, everything maid.....maid did everything...so...not even...once"

"What about the agricultural experience?"

"...to, today is...my the first time...in my life....."

"Have you ever fought a beast"

"...N, no.....Even wielding....the sword...this time is my first time....."

"Have you ever dated a woman?"

"..um, that...no"

"Why do you want to become a noble?"

"The, that is....to make my mom, my new soon to be dad and sister happy....."

"Varissa, can you answer my questions from experience you gained through being a castle knight?"

"Umm, no problem but? what is it?"

"You, did you go to school?"

"Weren't we in the same class in the knight cultivation school for a whole lot of time"

" Have you ever shopped in the market place?"

"Of course I have. Its an important thing to live like a commoner once in a while"

"How about an agriculture experience"

"Of course I have to manage a territory you must have a good amount of knowledge in agriculture"

"have you ever fought a beast"

"Obviously, I have it is a necessary thing to protect your people"

"Have you ever dated a guy"

"O, O ,O , o of course I have!"

"Why do you want to become a noble?"

"I want to rebuild my house and become a person who will be looked up upon by the people, family, and generally everyone, and to also engrave my family's name into the history" Brossam hearing Varissa until this point and returned her gaze to the young knight.

"You see this lady here's real occupation is a female knight and is in the country's knight of order. Similar to you she is also from a family of a fallen noble and been working hard to rebuild the family.

For that she buys in the market place, does agriculture, even fight.....there were one lies mixed in thought”

“Wa, wait a moment Brossam! YOU! why did you stop the story there! How can you say for sure if that was a lie!”

Brossam lightly patted on Varissa’s shoulder comforting her of her red fuming face spatting words out like a bullet.

“Even for things like rebuilding your nobility, she worked her all with her strength”

...There was a time when she was trying to charm Master-sama #furio into marrying her...i’m sure it’s not that big of a deal so I should keep it a little secret.....also Madam-sama #Lys is scary.....

“How about you? You have little to no knowledge about the outside world? Even rebuilding your family’s nobility you were all about that Female knight with a dragon slayer title, you weren’t thinking of other but yourself only!”

At some point in time during Brossam’s talk, the boy started crying big tears.

He hid behind his hands as he hiccuped many times due to excessive crying.

Seeing his miserable appearance, Brossam breathed one big mouthful and, “I can’t say it in a beautiful words as I was a dumb failing student in a knight cultivation school but.

You are just in too much rush”

“In rush?”

“Aa, thats right..Ettoo, at times like this how should I say.....”

Brossam looked up at the ceiling and started running through her thought.

And Varissa patted her shoulders and,

“Brossam, is telling you to know more about the world. A person with no knowledge regarding the outside world won’t succeed in being a noble who manage territory and relationship with their people.

Know the market, know the agriculture, know the battle, and woman....ahem, know relationship with people, she is trying to say prepare before tackling nobility.”

she continued her words.

Toward her words, the young knight face darkened and, "But...My body..."
Saying so his face darkened more.

However, Brossam grabbed onto his collar and brought his face toward her's.

"You! weren't you able to do agricultural work all day today?"

"....A!?"

"Don't go on and decide your own limit! Well, first thing first try doing it with your own strength and see how far you can get"

"...bu, but what if I fail and....."

"Stop thinking about failing before you even started!"

saying so she squeezed his face from left to right.

The young knight with his squeezed face looked to be in pain but in his face, there was no longer any sight of tears.

Few minutes later....

Young knight finally were able to calm down but because of extreme exhaustion it had been decided that he will sleep for a night in Furio's house.

Furio asked him if he wanted him to cast a healing magic on him but, "Thank you but I would like to remember this exhaustion so...."

Young knight declined.

He was on his way to the bedroom with his exhausted body as he walked unsteady looking as if he was going to faint once more, but before he was about to fall Brossam suddenly grabbed him and carried him in a way one carried a baby.

"I'm kinda sorry for that, I guess I went quite a bit overboard, even if it was meant for you to understand"

Young knight who was forced to be in such awkward position under Brossam's arm blushed while looking at Brossam smiling bitterly. "No, not at all" he answered while shaking his head left and right in quite powerful manner.

"So, how about it? I can introduce you to the female warrior with dragon slayer title as a sorry gift?"

"...No, I don't need it anymore"

"Are you sure?"

"Right...I think I will try my best and see how far I can go....also.."

"....nn?"

"...no, that....for now I don't need her"

Brossam looked dubiously at the blushing young knight who looked the other way as she carried him to the bedroom.

...Evil world ....

"What happened this time?"

"It, it seems like the evil god shrine's signal became lost!"

"Wh, what it in the world!?"

"without being able to detect the shrine's magic stone we won't be able to open the gate"

"Eeei, go find the reason quickly! To be this late even that Evil God same will be angered!"

..At a certain place in a certain forest...

"Hehehe, As expected there was the magic stone in this building too"

"Amazing Blonde haired hero samaaa"

While Blonde haired hero was searching for the handkerchief Allure forgot, his leg accidentally hit a building.

Because of a sudden pain, blonde haired hero got angry and destroyed the place, and soon after a magic stone was found.

....this will definitely be sold for a good price

Blonde haired hero who came back to the place Allure was waiting and somehow found the same building and destroyed it and was able to find the exact same magic stone in it.

“We should go sell it in the town later on”

“Haiii, blonde haired hero samaa”

“I’ve also brought in the handkerchief, don’t forget it next time”

“Haiii, I’m sorry desuu”

The moment those magic stone entered inside Blonde Haired hero’s magic bag it lost connection to the outside world. And there was no way these two would’ve known that.

Chapter 57: Once in a lifetime

...Furio household a day after the young knight went back....

Furio group showed a rather stiff smile as they stood in front of Brossam's family, who came here via Bily's carriage from the inn in Houtarou town.

*[tl note: I'm not sure but I think the author made a mistake calling them Brossam's family]

In front of them was,
Varissa's father, and a woman he will marry, and that woman's three son's stood there.

Varissa's father is a former noble. At present time he has been stripped of his noble status and is a fallen noble, and because of that he is working in the castle's knight of order as an mercenary and earning his living.

Even the woman he was planning to marry is a fallen noble who became so because of her husband's sudden death, but thanks to her clan's help she was able to live well in slight extravagance.

The woman fell in love the moment she saw Varissa's father patrolling in the city and she asked him out for a date. Soon it became to the point marrying.

And that wasn't surprising as they've already heard it before hand.

What everyone was surprised of was the woman's sun.
In the place was a young knight who were doing agricultural work together with Brossam, present.

Young knight was no different than them as he was similarly surprised as, "U, Um....perhaps Brossam-san will become my step sister...."
and he said so with a pale blue face as if he was on verge of breakdown but after hearing that Varissa was the one who will become his step sister, he showed a face sighed of relief.

There might've been a bit of confusion but soon Varissa's father, step mother and step brother young knight was invited inside the living room of Furio's house.

As a matter of fact,

At this point of time Varissa haven't told his father about her marriage.

She was thinking of coming out after hearing her dad's marriage but, ....ca, calm down....calm down me.....

Varissa was in a feeling extremely anxious as if her heart was going to explode as she guided her family into the living room.

"Iyar, My daughter is always in your care, gratitude have no words hahahaha"

"No no no, I'm also under your daughter's great care"

Furio and Varissa's dad talked casually as they walked in the corridor.

Behind them was the step mother and step brother but that step brother(young knight) looked at Brossam's side for multiple of time. And finally, Varissa and the father party reached the living room with Varissa's husband Gozaru and his first wife Uliminus was waiting.

"U, umm....Fo, for more detail we, introduce. here, that...."

Varissa was trying to introduce the two to her dad but when the father saw Gozaru, "You, aren't you that Laug Drol Nomed-dono!?" saying so approached Gozaru with a beaming smile and made a manly handshake.

"Ha, Haии!?"

Varissa who couldn't comprehend what was happening in front of her stood there blinking and stared shocked at the two.

Laug Nomen

A few decades ago from today, gozaru went out into the mortal world in order to investigate the human race in human form – Same form as Gozaru now – and went to many places.

And at the time he called himself.... Lang Drol Nomed .... its just a word that could be read backward as demon lord Gaul.....

He while roaming around different region once joined cattle knight of order as a mercenary and at that time met with Varissa's dad and fought together.

"I never in my right mind thought that I could reunite with Lang Drol Nomed done in such a place"

"Umu, I'm very happy that you are well too"

"When you talk about well being, I can't really forget that Hakusbnko's retreating battle"

"That, it was the Commander that was shit"

"Truly, because of that incompetent guy's mistake Lang Drol Nomed dono, all alone brought us the victory"

"You were also amazing for a human, to be able to do that"

Saying so the two laughed heartedly.

This historical talk left everyone out and this continued for quite a long time.

and in middle of the conversation

"Now that I think about it, I've actually am going to welcome a wife to my family, and this is her. And it's been decided that I will be taking his sons to my family too, haha, it shames me to do at such age"

"No no , you've got quite a beautiful mother and a powerful son"

....nya!? this guy actually read the atmosphere nya!?

About the woman is fine but that child no matter how you look at it looks weak and skinny.

Uliminus was the most surprised out of all the people in the room to see Gozaru being so normal and read the mood.

"Right right, I also welcomed a waif you see. I've made your daughter my second wife. and that is my second wife Uliminus. And I registered my name as Gozaru and you can call me that, father-dono"

...wait!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Gozaru said something the two, Uliminus and Varissa was having a hard time bringing out and he brought it out as if nothing that major. This caught Varissa off the guard and made her face turn weird and stiffed in the place.

Same for Uliminus who was next to her as her ear and tails which she hid well to be shown unconsciously as they stood erect.

And next to them was Furio and Lys who was in the panic as they couldn't react to the sudden opening.

In front of such party, Varissa's dad,

"Aa, I, I see, married daughter...., eh? who's daughter? etto, second wife? I've got no idea but, is that ajin the second wife....wait....first of all....first....second...."

To the sudden situation he fell unconscious as he couldn't keep up with it.

With that Varissa finally came to her senses and

"Fa, father~~~~~!!!!"

Went rushing for her father and tried hard to wake him up.

"...Gozaru-san you should try reading the mood better"

"Mu, Mu~? was the timing that bad?"

Gozaru showed a confused look in front of Furio who had his hand cover his head.

A few moments later...

Varissa prostrated in front of her dad as soon as he regained his consciousness and apologized, – that Gozaru was from Demon race – and she became his second wife

– The first wife too was from demon race She explained all this in a single line while shouting it out as loud as she can.

At first, the father listened to it in silence and

"...you....are fine with that right?"

He asked.

toward that Varissa

"Yes! I have no regret!"

Answered straightforwardly while still prostrating.

Toward that Varissa's dad looked at Gozaru and Uliminus who was also prostrating behind Varissa and, "She might be a foolish daughter as I grew it her myself alone but please take care of her”

saying so bowed deeply.

Toward that,

“You can count me on it, I shall make her the happiest person in the world, I promise in my name Gozaru”

Everyone laughed at Goazru who said so while patting his chest.

Furio and Lys heard the laugh from out the corridor, looked at each other and fell on their knees all the while sighing in relief.

Next to them was Sabea who was crying Funsu Funsu as if saying good work, and panted Pon Pon.

...Evil world..

“...oi heard that? that muscle-headed guy was sent to the punishment chamber”

“It seemed like he couldn’t open the gate to that world”

“What in the world was he even doing”

“Even so, because of this, they paused the invasion that world?”

“Aa, I heard that they found a guy with “One who annihilates evil” and said to have changed their plan”

“That means, they are going to aim for the guy with the title more strongly?”

“AA, but for now they are going to gather more information and till than the invasion is paused”

..at the certain place in a certain forest.....

“Blonde haired hero same, that magic stone sold for quite a good price”

“....no, it wasn’t sold for that much money”

“Eee!? but I saw that at the shop counter you received a bag full of gold”

“No, it was all bronze so we didn’t earn much”

“Oh, I see”

"U, umm. that's it. Its not like I hid all the money for myself or anything"

Chapter 58: People that are....just... good grief....

...CryLord Castle . Queen's office

...What happened really.....

Princess queen scrunched her eyebrows while holding the emergency case document.

It was a report regarding the building destroying case which was happening all over the region.

Even thought the human causality is low, the amount of building it destroyed couldn't be counted.

Unfortunately, the one behind the attacks doesn't leave a single evidence and escaped the clutches of knights, because of lack of evidence it's been rather difficult to track the culprit.

However what really made this interesting was the buildings that were attacked.

the attacked building had a shop opened but

- no official document regarding the management of the business was made
- Formerly an empty building, but out of nowhere it was in business
- They dealt with some shady stuff

From what the guards gathered, all the attacks done to the building were those with similar characteristics where a shady shop opened.

But because the shop dealt in illegal activities that disallow them to act in public, there has been not a single report of a damaged building.

....Even though the casualties are small, as long as the building in the town is destroyed it cannot be overlooked....how am I supposed to deal with this....

Princess queen couldn't come up with anything as she rubbed her eyes feeling all tired from pulling all-nighters for four days straight.

And in front of her was unchecked documents mounted on top each other building a massive fortress.

She held her head as she as she still didn't solve her dad former king's lost fortune – nobles escaping taxes and unchecked bribe money case– ...At certain room in the certain building in certain town...

"What! My shop was attacked again!"

"I'm very sorry my king"

"...I'm already a exiled one. call me King of Darkness. So what's the situation?"

"Ha! It is exactly the same as the last several cases as the shop with only several transactions were suddenly attacked"

"Whats the casualties"

"Same as before, several items we bought were taken"

".....I don't understand....if he/she is aiming for wealth why not take it all.....Because We work underground I can't go out in public....., even so, did you place the bodyguards?"

"Has...its just that the opponent who keeps on attacking is too powerful and the guard isn't able to deal with them....the guards were saying things like it was too strong as if it's a demon....."

"...Oh well, nothing can be done about the past....Increase the number of guards and bring up the shop's security level. Also, make sure to increase the vigilance by three times!"

"Yes, your majesty the King of Darkness"

• • Houtarou town • • Sundry Goods store • •

"Lately there have been several cases of destruction incident. It was all I heard in the market"

Furio who came back from getting the supply said so while giving the leftover money to Uliminus.

"I've sent one of the worker to the shop to investigate but it smells like demon or the evil god might have a relationship nya"

Uliminus looked at the report documents scattered all over her desk while receiving the left over money, it was a report by the supply department for UUGO who were once Demon lord army espionage Silent ear's members. She tilted her head and, "Even so, there is too little information, for now, nya. There has been no direct damage so for now we can only spectate nya.

....now that I see didn't you again improve in getting the supplying nya right? The left over money is a lot more compared to the expected one nya"

Toward Uliminus who shouted in surprise after checking the content inside the bag, Furio "I guess this kind of work fits me the best. It was something I did all the time in my former world" saying so he smiled.

••At the same time• in Furio's house•

Its been already a week since Varissa's family came to visit.

Today, in Furio's house Varrissa's now step brother the young knight Jaren came to visit.

– Furio, Uliminus, Gozaru, Varissa all were busy out working – Delano was also busy being the teacher in the magic school
– Brossam, however, was busying herself in the farm behind the house
And so the one who welcomed him was Furio's wife Lys, Bily the archer who manages the ranch and pet Saber.

After greeting everyone Jalen who was guided to the Living room "Umm, I came in here in my wishful thought of learning to become a great noble" saying so hand the written letter from his dad.

In the first half of the content was about how Jaren wished dearly to be here and so on.

...But when they reached the other half...it said something about how they wanted to go for a honey moon with the money given from Furio and Gozaru as a celebration, and something along of how busy they used to be and blah blah blah..

.....basically, they are saying he is the hindrance to their new love life.....

..Haii, I also think the same desu~...

Lys and Bily who understood the later half smiled bitterly.

Even so,

"I believe its alright for you to stay since there is your step sister Varissa staying too. But for official approval you must discuss with my husband ok"

Saying so Lys floated out a smile

"Hai!! Thank you very much!"

Hearing the answer from Lys Jaren replied with a bright smile and bowed many times in gratitude "Plus, there is Brossam here too"
Lys said so and smiled again.

"Eh!? no!? that...."

Jaren's face turned bright red after hearing the words and shut his mouth as he couldn't speak properly.

Seeing Jaren's appearance,

....That was a great reaction. From here on I must work hard and build the bridge for them!

And Lys's thought ran around the opposite of what Brossam really wanted.

..That night..In Furio's house

Furio who heard the story directly from Jaren as soon as he got back said this.

"It is always great thing to have the motivation to learn new things, I will have to ask for your help in future"

Saying so bowed toward Jaren who was bowing repeatedly.

However,

"...Why are you in here? Oi"

"Brossam san! From today on I will be in your care! Please to be with you!"

Brossam was met with the sight of Jaren as she came back from working in the field. And because of the sudden appearance of Jaren she became confused and was explained by Jaren that he came here to train in order to become a noble.

"....Aa, it must be because last time I've inputted this thought in him hahah....."

As she couldn't just outright deny what she said to him and so she could only accept it with a hesitant heart.

...this guys, after that scolding he started to close in the distance between us... no, its not like Im into young boys...hahah what am I supposed to do...

Brossam bitterly smiled at Jaren who was jumping in happiness whilst holding onto her hand.

Few moments later

Varissa too was surprised at Jaren being in the house and became more surprised at Jaren saying he came to train, and became even more surprised after reading the letter from her dad.

"no, I don't mind my step brother learning in here. However, Shouldn't they have at least came to me and talk with me about this since I'm the eldest daughter in the house?...."

till here was fine but....

"Things like.... Honeymoon, relaxing time alone with wife....it freaking doesn't match with that strict character of a dad! I the daughter haven't even gone to honeymoon myself....we don't even have much time alone together....but you!....not fair at all....."

As she started saying later part her usual calm demeanour came off and started shaking her hair in frustration.

Gozaru who was seeing such scene,

...Fume, Varissa really doesn't fail in ever making me love her, as expected of her....

Laughed as he crossed his arms.

...At certain place in certain forest....

"Blonde haired hero-samoa, I found that column here too!"

"I knew it! that column with a magic stone in it was branched all over the place, as I predicted.

it was always there where ever I predicted"

“Haiii, we can go and sell the magic stone after we excavate it”

“About that, it seems like the underground shop we sold the magic stone bankrupted”

“Eee? why is that?”

“It seems like, that shop was destroyed or something. We too are people who can't show our faces in public and it is quite a pain to not be able to deal in normal shop”

“I really want to be able to become a normal person soon”

“Oh well, as long as we sell and excavate these magic stone we can just buy the amnesty out”

“Will it go that smoothly?”

“It will be fine, I've been doing it all the time”

“he?all the time?”

“n, no, no it was nothing, just a mistake, forget what I just said”

Arc 12

Chapter 59: An appearance of people working hard

At the certain corner in certain town.

...For real....what in the world is happening?....

Ririanju who is the subordinate of Evil god was feeling frustrated while holding onto the magic stone in her hand.

This magic stone was a magic stone which were all supposed to be hidden in the Evil god shrine's column and were used for a connecting bridge for the Evil god's people to come use to reach this world.

But recently more than half of the column were destroyed and the case where the magic stone is stolen became frequent.

Because of that Ririanju was left with no ways to return back to Evil world and because of her insufficient power, she isn't able to telephonically communicate to the outside of this world, as she fell in her dilemma.

Even so, she was able to track some of the magic stones and get it back but unfortunately she didn't have enough mana to create a new shrine making her fall in further dilemma Ririanju without any better option followed a trace of evil aura and had a battle stance, ready to fight anytime.

...I should attack after those blonde guys leave the area, since lately, the enemy-san's counter attack have been quite powerful, it's better to have lesser enemies too ...At certain room in a certain building in a certain town...

“...You lost again?”

“I, I’m very sorry your dark majesty but this time we were able to inflict a deadly injury to the enemy sir”

“Hou? is that so”

“Yes, it seemed that the opponent was a demon and tried to escape using its wing but one of the magicians successfully burn one of its wings”

"If so, it shouldn't have escaped that far, go find it immediately. If it were a male just punch it to death. However, if it were a girl bring it to me as I will directly investigate it myself. Gufufufu....Understood?"

"Y, Yes majesty"

..Furio household's back garden ranch...

"Your husband-dono can really do anything"

One of the 3 devas of demon lord's army, Slape who sought for a retirement looked at Furio's self-made house only for him, couldn't help but raise a voice filled with praise.

Furio found a right time, so he set the blueprint and started gathering and processing the materials he got from the forest, and soon enough a building enough to accommodate Slape was built.

Furio and his party invited Slape to live with them but "I'm sure living together with such old gramps like me will make you guys uncomfortable"

Slape replied with this and decided to live in a place a bit further than the house.

"If Husband-sama wished, he has more than enough power to conquer this world, but he doesn't like fighting in itself. Even more so, he loves to use his stuff on things like this as it pleases him a lot."

Saying so Lys smiled heartwarmingly.

These two are,

One of the two is a sister of the four devas of demon lord army and once was called the ferocious Female eating wolf, the other is one of the four devas and at the same time one of the three supreme generals of demon lord army while being the eldest of all, was once in the highest of all position in Demon lords army.

Right now their countenance shows nothing of such ferocious past rather excluded a relaxed and smooth atmosphere.

"Slape sama~, I've brought in the baggage desu~"

Toward the two Bily walked toward them as she carried the baggage Slape kept in Furio's house as a temporary storage.

"Aa~, you don't have to try so hard and carry so much what if you fall again"

Slape rushed toward Bily as soon as he saw the amount Bily was carrying.

"Such amount is fi....Hawawawa!?"

"You see I told you"

"Hauuuu, I'm sorry~"

Slape with one hand stopped Bily who was about to fall and carried her up, Bily could only smile bitterly and stuck out her tongue.

"It's not something to laugh about, don't make us elders worried"

"Haiii, I'm very sorry~"

Lys who was looking at them from a place slightly far from them ...If they were to continue so it might take them quite a bit of time, maybe till dawn....

Thinking so, she went toward the direction where Slape's baggage is located at so that she can help.

••That night•in•Furio's house••

"It's two days 1-night nya"

Saying so Uliminus handed the voucher to Hot spring kinousaki for pair, "Ha?"

Varissa tilted her head in confusion

"Last time you were saying something along the line of 'how jealous ' you were for your dad's honeymoon nya. Go nya"

"wa!? a, no, that, that you see, I, it's true I was sort of envious but, tha, the, no, no it's not that It is necessary to go, and that ...."

toward the sudden proposal, Varissa fell in a state of confusion and Uliminus looked at her confusion with irritation and "Are you going? not going? which one nya"

Saying so she raised her right hand and

"5, 4, 3, ...."

started counting down.

“I, I will go~~!!!!!!”

Varissa couldn’t take all the fingers folding and fell on her knees as she held onto the voucher from Uliminus.

Gozaru who was looking at such Varissa,

“Good for you Varissa, go enjoy it till your heart’s content” saying so laughed, hahahaha Uliminus showered him with a cold gaze and,

“...she is going with you nya dumbass nya” mumbled it.

“ha? is that so?”

But Gozaru who couldn’t infer the situation he was in showed a surprised expression.

Uliminus toward his inability to read the mood, ....maybe I’ve been a bit hasty to become his firs wife nya....

could only smile bitterly.

• • Furio’s household after dinner • •

That day Young Knight Jaren who worked all day from the morning helping out Brossam in agricultural works ate dinner with great difficulty and soon half of his consciousness were already gone as he sat on the sofa.

“Didn’t I tell you working full time in the farm for a first timers are difficult?
How about you start with helping out the sundry goods store UUGO”

Brossam told him as she looked at him with concern.

But Jaren desperately moved his head left tot right.

“n, No...I want to be with Brossa...m.....”

saying till then, he lost his consciousness.

“I will buy your motivation but future is looking dark for you man”

Saying so she carried Jaren to the bath.

...next Morning...

Jaren with a bright red face rather the whole body looked red with shame as he hid under the blanket. This happened after he heard that after he fell unconscious last night he was taken to bath and was bathed by Brossam.

"It's' fine, all I did was clean your hair and your body and let you float in the water. I didn't do anything else"

Even after Brossam told him so Jaren couldn't just leave the bed.

...My weak and frail body to be seen by her.....

In the end, Jaren couldn't overcome his trauma till dinner time that day.

• • At certain place in certain forest • •

"Blonde Haired Hero-sama! Look! There are so many magic stones laying in the road!"

"Ooo~! This is great! Allure we must pick every last bit of it up!"

"Hai~! Understood des....wait what?"

"Whats wrong, Allure?"

"Blonde Haired hero sama there seemed to be a person laying unconscious behind that tree desu~"

"Magic stone comes first. If the person is still there after we sold all the magic stone in the town we can help her"

Chapter 60: People who visited and the person who desperately worked hard

• • At certain place in certain forest • •

Ririanju after regaining her consciousness realized that all her collected magic stones disappeared and, “..such blunder....”

Smashed the ground in frustration.

The part till her beating the clerk of the shop where the magic stone probably were brought.

But she was hit with a continuous attack of high ranked magic from the magician party hidden beneath the curtain of darkness, which burnt one of Ririanju’s wing and could only escape miserably.

As a matter of fact, the magicians party were the same magicians who were kicked out of the castle with the former king, now Dark king, and are one of the top magicians in the country.

Even for a person of Evil race, she who was on the level of slave, failed to confront them. Even so, she was able to steal the magic stone and escape till the forest until she fell powerlessly.

“For now this appearance is bad, I will be caught by the pursuers if I stay like this”

Saying so she changed her body into that of a bat and hidden in the nearby tree.

A few moments later, magicians brought with them a people seemingly a soldier.

“...Around here that guy’s trace disappeared....it must be near, go search for it!”

The mages seemingly using a trace magic looked back and forth between the crystal and area around the tree Ririanju hi herself.

...this is bad...

Ririanju who had her wings burnt couldn't fly and could only wait while biting her lips in her mind.

▪▪Furio's house back garden

"I see, first you must learn the feeling"

Varissa told Jaren, her step brother who was next to her.

It has been decided that Varissa would teach Jaren the ways of sword and today was their first day.

Standing next to him while showing him the proper way and pointing out his problems.

There was once a time her sword looked like that of a play but after training with Furio and Gozaru her sword skill went a rank or so higher.

Varissa was naturally good at teaching others and so Jaren who was a complete noob was able to have a sort of ok posture in just about hour of training.

"Ok,, lets end it here for today. After washing yourself lets eat the breakfast together with everyone"

"Understood, step sister"

Jaren answered with a smile as he received the towel handed to him by Varissa.

"Step sister's sword is really beautiful. Even for a noob like me I might fall in love"

"I, I see. that is great"

Toward the super high class praise, Varissa blushed with no resistance.

"Aa, can I have a moment you two"

Gozaru called the two.

Gozaru is a husband of Varissa and Varissa is the second wife of Gozaru. That is why Varissa's step brother Jaren is also a step brother in law of Gozaru.

'What is it? Gozaru dono'

"What is it? Step brother in law"

"No, its not that big of a deal but, my old comrade will be here to come and congratulate me of my marriage, so I thought how about you guys join us"

toward such words, Varissa,

"Old you say, meaning When you were the demon king?"

Saying so she smiled bitterly.

She already is aware of her status as a wife of former demon king, she won't fret like before but she couldn't hid a bit of anxiety, But Jaren,

"Hai! To build a good relationship is important as I've learnt from Brossam san. So please introduce them to me"

Bowed with an enthusiastic smile.

Seeing her step brother act like that Varissa could only look at him with a hint of worry.

...Jaren doesn't truly believe that Gozaru-dono is from demon race.....will it be fine Few hours later,

It was as what Varissa expected.

Gozaru's friends who came to Furio's house numbered around 10 people.

Everyone had a human form but one had a spider leg coming out of its back one had a long tongue which came out time to time one had a irrationally large leg seemingly made of a granite.

and it was obvious to anyone present that they were from a demon race.

"Everyone, were you all in good health? its been so long"

"Ou! The words are wasted to people like us"

Toward the former demon king Gozaru's word everyone prostrated and some even cried out of happiness.

These people were once in demon lords army and is a known historical battle heroes.

Some like Slape retired because of their age and some were forced to retire because of their mana went dry, now everyone here left the demon lords army but still had an absolute loyalty to the person whom they once worked under.

“Oo! You are that Furio dono, I’ve heard a lot of rumor from Demon king sama”

“Rumor as it is, Gozaru-san has been taking care of me a lot. And to be able to meet his friends I feel nothing but honored”

Even toward the demons Furio was without any change and received them with a rather easy going smile.

Lys too stayed next to him and provided with teas and snacks.

Lys is also a person from demon race and was familiar with everyone her.

“That shrew wolf to be this calm and kind, what a time to be alive” and the people who knew where past started laughing but “You there....I can hear you?”

Lys with her receiving smile for guest threw the meet’s fruit which hit right in the face, “I guess not” they could only think so in their heart.

Next to these happy people,

Jaren lost all his color as if he was about to die of fear.

...I’ve heard that Step brother in law was a demon but....I thought it was just a joke....

“Hou, so this is the step brother of Gozaru-dono? Umm how should I say.....you are too skinny”

“Oh well he is young for a human race and still have a bright future ahead. How is it my step brother, next time I can bring you to the hundred poisonous hunt”

“If you want to fish that Human Eating Ocean Sunfish, I shall go with you guys” Jaren was desperately keeping his ever escaping consciousness while staying in the middle of this happy and cheerful demons.

Varissa too looked a bit anxious after so many congratulations from the demons as they surrounded her but there wasn’t any anxiety because of their demon race.

"Jaren, I'm sure it might take a while to get used to it but these guys are my good comrades and I would be happy if you think of them as your family member"

Gozaru saying so patted Jaren's shoulder.

And in here Jaren with all his might raised his head and smiled at everyone..... but his smile didn't look anything at all like a smile because of all the fear he had and looked rather closer to crying but the demons surrounding him nodded in happiness.

• • At certain place in certain forest • •

"Oya? Aren't you guys the mercenary from the shop?"

"Oya? Oh, it's you Mr. Golden Hair Brave Man , we are in your debt every time and thank you very much"

"Umu, That is good but what is this suffocating situation"

"Aa, no...its nothing that important. Oi everyone we are going back"

Because they saw the couple who always brings high-quality gems to the shop the mercenaries searching for the criminal who attacked their shop stopped and left the place.

It was an action because of their thought that they couldn't just show one of their regular customer such miserable site ...I'm sure its an alias but it sure is a long one.....

Ririanju who was looking at it from afar sighed in relief.

The two who looked around after the mercenary left,

"Blonde haired hero sama, that person who was laying unconscious is gone desu"

"That's why I told you it's a waste of time, come, lets go"

"Haiii, I understand~

- to be continued

Chapter 61: A person that became Hawawa!?

• • At certain room in certain building in certain town • •

"What!? You stopped the search and returned?"

"Ha, I'm very sorry Dark king sama. I've judged that it was necessary to do since a regular customer adventurer came."

"What is that man's name"

"Ha, Golden Haired Brave man as he said it himself"

"I've never heard of it...But just in case he might catch onto something go bring the assassin to him and kill him."

"Ha, Understood"

"Just in case, is the adventurer male"

"Ha, Golden Haired Brave man is male, and he have 1 female companion"

"Kill the male. Female....you know it right? Gufufu"

"Ha, I understand"

• • At certain place in a certain forest • •

Inside the dark forest before dawn.

Blonde haired hero and Allure was sleeping in the cave.

And there was around 10 presence grouped up observing the cave.

....Are they the ones who Dark King sama ordered for us to assassinate?

....Aa, definitely. But the one we should assassinate is only the male. I was told to give the female to the Dark Kings sama.

..Dark king sama is truly active...

...Stop the idle talk ad lets go

The ten people while omitting a cold killing intent started slowing encroaching the cave.

••Furio's house•Morning••

Fortunately or unfortunately the one who noticed it first was Gozaru.

Gozaru who was looking at Lys•Uliminus•Varissa•Bily, extended his hand at Bily who was one of them.

Gozaru, after checking something mumbled it in a small voice, "Slape got me good. I never thought he will take a step sooner than me"

Saying so laughed whole heartedly.

The party looked at him without understanding why he was laughing.

"Gozaru-san did something happen?"

Furio who came back after fixing the walls asked Gozaru who was laughing.

"Oo~, Furio-dono. It's nothing just feeling great because of a celebratory stuff"

Saying so he started laughing again.

"Before you were extending your hand at Bily but did something happen nya?"

Uliminus while holding a vegetable asked Gozaru with a rather dubious look.

"What is it? You haven't noticed it yet?"

Saying so Gozaru approached Bily and pointed at her stomach and said, "Congratulation. You've got Slape's kid here " and then started laughing again.

"Hai? Gozaru-san what did you just say?"

Bily asked Gozaru while looking at Gozaru's face with eyes that failed to pinpoint.

"Aa, I'm telling you that there is Slape's child in your stomach. There is the demon horse's undulation omitting from it"

Saying so Gozaru again started laughing.

Bily however, was in shaking head to toe from hearing his words and "ch....child?"

“Umu”

“in...inside here?”

“Umu”

“Ch...child?”

“Umu”

“In...Inside here?”

“You are quite slow”

Bily said it till there and the words stuck in her mouth.

“Hea!? Hawaa!? Do, Douou!?”

[tlnote: plz don't take this seriously, they are onomatopoeia and doesn't really make any sense]

Her eyes opened wide and her face turned bright red while spouting some nonsense.

Her though were too much in the ramble as normal words couldn't come out of her mouth.

“Congratulation, Bily. Jeez, when did you two have it inserted.”

[tl note: yes, she literally said so]

Lys congratulated her as she patted Bily's shoulders while showing a surprised look.

“in, inserteeeeednn, hawaa!?”

Bily was congratulated by everyone around her.

But she does have a bit of conscience that people were saying things to her but because her though were in too much ramble she couldn't answer in a normal way and continuously spouted nonsense.

As a matter of fact,

Its only been around a month or so after Bily and Slape met each other. And the two made a connection with each other is only once.

It was her first time so she fell unconscious due to the pain. Slape who cared about her safety stopped doing with her, but this was the result of such one time.

And of course Bily who could only think of one occasion could only become panicked and raised a shrill voice.

Slape who heard the news,

“Uoooooooooooooooooooooo”

and shouted and showed happiness through his whole body.

Slape has taken several wives but there was not even once he bore a child.

He already gave up as he got older but because of that, the happiness he got from it were large.

“I really have to start preparing, this must be done urgently....”

“Eh? b, but Slape sama I thought Horse’s pregnancy time is around a year so was it wrong for me to assume Slape sama’s child would be the same?”

Bily at that time finally calmed down asked, Slape.

“Wrong wrong wrong, that’s for a normal horse. When my death horse species’s blood is mixed it takes only about 2 months for a baby to be born”

“Haha!? Two months!?”

Toward the sudden revelation, Bily who finally was able to regain calmness suddenly felt that her mind was once again going down the chaotic path...

Next day everyone started working in a hurry.

Furio started rebuilding Slape’s house.

He did calculate that Bily would be living together but he didn’t think a baby would be born so he added a baby room and a living wide enough for a kid to enjoy.

Brossam, while managing agricultural work also had to manage the ranch Bily used to manage.

Belano was reading all the books regarding the delivery of a child and was preparing herself for the time.

She as a very good friend of Bily from when they were a knight, already decided to take this job.

Varissa and Uliminus decided to take up the household chores Bily used to do and supplied her with a food good for Bily's health "Madam-sama....I'm really sorry for all the trouble "

"You don't have to worry about it. I will ask my husband to buy for my part later on"

Lys bought a lot of leemon just in case she became pregnant. Bily after her pregnant were discovered started craving for a sour stuff, was getting leemon from the stock ate quite an amount of it everyday.

Every second she got Lys poured her time into helping Bily out. This is kind of a training for her when she herself become pregnant and gaining knowledge regarding it, and liked to look at Bily who held her stomach filled with love.

"How does it feel? to have a baby there?"

"Otto...I don't know how to word it but....It feels kind off warm"

Saying so Bily smiled.

Seeing such smile Lys couldn't help but want to have a child with Furio.

• • At certain place in a certain forest • •

"Fuaaa, good morning Blonde haired hero sama"

"Umu, mornin'"

"I will go get some water for us, please wait a moment "

"Make it quick. I feel sick when I don't wash my face in the morning"

"Haiii, roger that"

At a place a bit further from the scene we saw before.

in there laid 10 dead bodies.

They were the assassins who came to kill Blonde haired hero the subordinates of the dark king.

Next to them laid, Ririanju, an evil god's tamed monster was breathing raggedly.

Without caring for her injured body, as soon as she saw the assassins who were about to murder Blonde haired hero she pounced on them all alone and killed all.

“with this....my debt...is repaid....Golden Haired Brave man”

Ririanju with her wimpy body stood up and disappeared into the depths of the forest.

Chapter 62: The one who works hard • The one who does too much • The one who misunderstood

• • Inside a certain mountain

Ririanju who was a tamed monster of Evil god flew through tree desperately while still in her Bat form.

And behind her existed a person from the evil race in eagle form chasing her.

Ririanju somehow with her petite sized body able to maneuver her body better giving a little advantage of the eagle and was barely holding onto her lead but as time goes eagle with it's superior speed kept nearing her.

...shit, if only I didn't have the injury I would be this overwhelmed...

Ririanju felt irritated and continuously clicked her tongue as her injury she got from the dark king's shop yesterday didn't heal and she couldn't fly properly.

And As she was about to make a curve between the branches she was finally caught by the eagle's claw and was crushed onto the ground.

"You really have fallen, Ririanju"

The person from evil race continuously pecked onto Ririanju who was still in bat form whilst laughing in a maniac manner.

"I knew it all you know? Even though you were failing miserably in collecting the magic stone you got the audacity to help the inferior human race. Are you trying to paint Evil god sama's face with a mud, oi"

This man from the evil race was also one of the envoys sent to this world and was searching for the magic stone in a different route stumbled upon Ririanju's failure in collecting the magic stone and how she helped Blonde Haired Hero's party.

"..If you were watching, you could've at least lend a hand...if so, I wouldn't be this miserable...."

"Wont the reward be better if I didn't share the credit for the work you know? Oh well, You can watch me as I get a great reward, in hell."

Saying so the evil race with a eagle form readied its beak onto Ririanju's head.

• • Hour before the dawn • Furio's household stair •

Slape's race Death horse clan takes around 2 months for a baby to be born.

And because of that Bily who wasn't even a month being pregnant showed a distinct change in her stomach as it bulged in a visible manner.

Because of the sudden change, Bily who is skinny and petite suffered quite a lot of burden fro it.

But she wore a stamina recovery ring Furio made for her and so she wasn't in that much pain or suffering compared to how she looked.

But

Slape who was watching it wasn't fine at all.
It was a first time experience for the old Slape.

"Are, are you fine? Lady...no Bily if you have anything you want me to do just tell me alright?"

Slape continuously asked if she is fine and what not while looking anxious, and stayed by her side for a long period of time.

In front of such Slape, Bily tried to stand up slowly.

"No, no good no good! If you are going to do something, then I will do it for you, so just sit down and relax!"

Slape gently touched her shoulder and made her sit down.

"Umm, that, this is not something another person can do for you~ ....."

"No no no, for you I can do anything in place of you. so, what should I do?"

While staring at Slape's face,

....no, your wrong desu~, Slape-sama~, I, I want to go to the toilet.....

Bily tried to very hard to think of a way for her to open it out but blushed feeling shameful.

• • Inside a certain mountain

Ririanju who was held onto the ground by the eagle's claw looked around feeling confused at what just happened.

The evil one who was in the form of Eagle was about to peck her head to death but was suddenly pierced by a spear and died.

"Look, Allure! It was one hit kill"

"Amazing desu~! Blonde Haired Hero Sama~! You are also good at throwing spears!"

"Umu, that's right"

Saying so Blonde haired hero and Allure showed themselves from the bushes.

"This is quite a big eagle, it will be a feast tonight"

"It's exciting desu~...wait, the eagle is holding onto a bat"

"Bat can't be eaten, so just let it return back to the wild"

"Haai, understood"

And with that, the two holding eagle –Evil one's dead body– in their hand, left into the depths of the forest.

Ririanju who returned back to the human form from bat, as she stared at the back of the two disappearing into the wilderness "...again.....Golden Haired Brave man saved....me..."

saying so had her face blushed.

Chapter 63: Before the Dawn · Furio household's stairs

Gozaru's first wife Uliminus and second wife Varissa.

Uliminus is in charge of keeping a vigil for Gozaru for the night on odd days whilst Varissa is in charge of keeping a vigil for Gozaru for the night on even days, this was decided between the two, and today was an even day.

..Is, is this a bit too shameless?....

Varissa could feel her face turn bright red while checking on her night gawn which were a bit more revealing than usual.

....no, this much shouldn't really matter...I will make Gozaru-dono happier than usual and make myself the next Bily...no I want to become one.....

After gripping her hands tightly and taking a deep breathe, started waking towards Gozaru's room.

"Wait a minute nya, Second wife"

Uliminus called Varissa from behind.

Varissa's eyebrow twitched as she looked back, Varissa in a see through baby doll appearance blushing entered her sight.

"....what is it Varissa dono who is "next in line""

"Its about that nya, please I want you to hand over for today nya "

"Unfortunately for you but I can't do that"

"Please just for today bend that rule nya"

"No, I won't bend the rule"

"I, I feel like today, today for sure I can be conceived nya!"

"Such coincidence, me too !"

"Uu~!"

"Nu~"

In front of the two who was fighting for tonight's position for getting into the nightlife with Gozaru.

"Oi, what happened? You aren't done with the preparation?"

Gozaru who felt curious as too why Varissa wasn't coming in showed his face out of the bedroom and called out.

"I'm coming! Gozaru-dono~"

"N, No! to, today Varissa have a bad stomach nya, so I shall be your company tonight"

Gozaru who was staring at the two rushing to him said,

"I don't really understand but why don't you two just accompany me tonight together at the same time"

"ha?"

"nya?"

the two stood frozen as they blushed.

Its true that they didn't completely thought of such idea but the sense of shame coming from such though just made it hard for the two to voice it out.

"Nu? you don't like it? I see, if so today Varissa....."

"I understand nya! I understand nya so lets do together with the three of us nya!"

"wai! u, u, u , Uliminus-dono! What are you saying all of a sudden"

Saying so they started fighting again but this time they were slowly encroaching toward the bedroom.

"Oh well, if its with the two of you tonight I might be able to go with full strength tonight"

Saying so Gozaru laughed but it didn't reach the two's ears as they were cat fighting.

...next day...

Uliminus and Varissa came out of Gozaru's room all wobbly was in afternoon

“....It was a very good sample for my training, gratitude have no words”

Hiya who is a devil who rules over light and darkness, at the same time Furio's slave and a researcher of training, sneaked out of th room where she hid for the entire duration of Gozaru's harem night, raised an impressed voice.

...Demon lord army moves...

There was once a powerful soldiers, who ranked highest in the demon lord's army called four devas But,

Fanged Wolf Fennringle who was one of them died,

Death Horse Slape who was also one of them retired.

Because of that, only two of the four strongest remained and they are, Snake queen Yorumeet and Double headed bird Fugy • Bugy.

“...Oi Fufun, what hows the selection going? A?”

Yuguard raised a distasteful voice toward Fufun, while sitting on a throne with seemingly irritated expression.

“Yes, We were able to find several candidate for it but currently are unable to make the decision and... “

Saying so she sighed after looking back at the document.

In front of such Demon king Yuigard and Fufun,

Lightning Tiger • Muran

Vampire cold Woman • Jatem

Granite Giant • Destroy

Magic Cannon Beast • Dodo~n The four who was selected for the candidate to become one of the highest ranked people in Demon king's army showed a bewildered expression.

“Wa, wait a moment cha! Are you saying we are lacking to become one of the Four Devas cha?”

Moran the lightning tiger raised her voice and approached Fufun.

“We recognize your powers. thats why we called you in here. But you all together have a underwhelmingly low achievements. Such as that attack on CryLord Castle, did any of you here raised any accountable achievements?”

Hearing Fufun's words, the candidates' words stuck in their throats.

What can you say the attack on CryLord castle was an absolute failure with it being history's most disastrous loss the demon lord's army ever faced.

And of course, everyone here served in the military for that attack and lost a miserable loss and retreated.

"Its sort of out of place for us to talk back at but I feel as thought including that war in this evaluation is a bit unfair....At that battle, I will again talk back but, those two, the two devas, also haven't raised any achievement too, is what I think"

[Tl note: she/he said it in a very respectful manner, its just hard for me to translate the into english...]

Jutem the Vampire Cold woman bowed gracefully at the demon king Yuiguard whilst including a sarcastic remark.

"..for a little girl to become so arrogant....."

Snake queen Yorumeet clicked her tongue as she was about to jump onto the girl but was stopped by the demon king Yuiguard.

"You've kept your life for now" saying so looked away.

"If so please give us some sort of mission roy"

The granite giant Destroy who had a huge body behind everyone else raised his voice.

"I agree on dodo~n, we will use that and make you guys recognize our strength dodo~n"

Magic cannon beast Dodo~n agreed with Destroy while spinning his cannon on his back.

"I see, I shall bestow upon you guys a mission. A perfect timing as the envoy of the evil god came and gave us a job"

Saying so he stood up from the throne and raised his right hand.

"Listen here you freaks, go collect the evil god magic stone. Some asshole has been stealing it and running away with it.

I don't give a shit if you kill the thief, but make sure to never harm the magic stone, am I understood?"

The four hearing the demon king Yuiguard's command sat on one knees and, "Understood cha"

"I think you will enjoy the result"

"I shall do it roy"

"Rely on me dodo~n"

All replied in their own way and bowed.

This nothing but a digression however,
When Yuiguard raised his left arm, Fufun was right next to him so accidentally or not it hit Fufun's chin ...Yuiguard sama thank you for the amazing gift.....

was in middle of the air as her consciousness left her she had a ecstatic expression on her face.

what a annoying Masochist.

• • At a certain place in a certain forest • •

"What's wrong Blonde haired hero sama?"

"...no, its just that I felt a cold breeze pass through me.
More importantly after the meal we are going to go sell the magic stone"

"ee!? at this time?"

"Stop complaining! understand!"

"Ha, haaaa"

• • Houtarou town • Sundry Goods Store UUGO

"U~n....."

Uliminus who was the owner of the Sundry Goods store was stretching her neck as she read the circulation board.

"Did something happen? any problems?"

Varissa who was checking the items on the shelf asked.
And next to her was Jaren who carried mountains of inventory item while wobbling followed closely to her.

"It seems like the indiscriminate attack incident have been on rise and the message to be careful have been on circulation nya"

Saying so Uliminus showed the circulation board.

Skimming through it

"Hmm, the the town next to us have already suffered the attack....it seems like this town might get affected from it too"

Varissa with that crossed her arms and fell in thought.

Uliminus too looked at the circulation board again and

"And it is written that with that attack in mind I am supposed to join the self-patrol team o this town"

Saying so she showed an expression saying that it is bothersome.

Soon after, as a result of discussion with everyone inside the shop it has been decided that Furio, Gozaru, Uliminus, and Varissa will join in chronological order and with some of the former Silent Ear members will join together.

"With that, Varissa who has an early dismissal join the patrol nya. I will report it immediately nya "

"Umu, I understand"

Varissa who answered Uliminus started skimming through the document regarding the details of the patrol job.

and behind her

....step siser....pl, please hurry.....I don't think I can last any longer.....

Jaren who was refilling the items in the shop with Varissa was holding onto a large amount of supply in his arms and he looked as if he was about to die of exhaustion.

Because Varissa suddenly started talking with Uliminus he was basically abandoned and left alone to his demise.

While trying onto his escaping consciousness and holding onto the last bit of energy to hold the supplies he was waiting for Varissa to follow up and help him.

But Varissa in front of him was still skimming through the document.

"...fumufumu, we patrol from 3rd district to 11th district..and after that..."

Uliminus after seeing that Varissa was reading the documents went inside and approached one of the workers in supply department.

....so whats the information we got regarding this incident nya?

....it was a rather light investigation but we found one curious point.

..what is it nya?

....All the attacked shops have a evidence of item of evil god being brought there. the reason to that is still unknown.

...umm...I understand nya, continue with the investigation also tell others that too nya.

...roger.

As soon as they finished with the whispering discussion they nodded toward each other and both went back to their work.

Few seconds later,

Jaren who lost all his strength fell unconscious as he dropped all the items everywhere.

...At certain corner in a certain back road in a certain town...

"...what in the world is happening"

"Why did that clerk suddenly attacked us"

Blonde haired hero and Allure went to the shop in the back alley of the town, as usual, was suddenly attacked by the clerk and they desperately ran away.

"I don't know the reason....but 5 times in a row, I can't help but notice something must've happened"

"What should we do, Blonde haired hero sama!~"

"For now...."

Saying so Blonde hero stood up and

"lets think of a way to dispose of the magic stone"

And they started moving toward the next town in search of back alley shop.
